Czech Plane Tried Spying Over Spain

MADRID. (Reuter). — At least once in the past few weeks a Czechoslovak air-liner flying between Prague and Conakry, capital of Guinea, has gone off course in the direction of joint Spanish-American bases in Spain, usually well-informed American sources and here yesterday. The pilot obeyed without incident the indication of Spanish fighter patrols that he should return to his assigned route, they said.

American fighters were Capital of Gyoto.

The dead and injured were the families of war dead on an excursion to the famous-Mount Hiel.

The bus, carrying 45 persons, went out of control and tumbled about 20 metres to a mountain switchback where it collided with another bus. It then plunged 55 metres to the bottom of the valley. American fighters were ready to lend assistance if needed, but their help was not required, the sources added. The "New York Times" had yesterday alleged a number of incidents and said the Czech planes had tried to evade or defy the Spanish jets.

and these moves, in turn, alarmed the Congolese population.

The arrival of the "Figator Correspondent in various East Congo towns, abbard a Dakota airliner, was in itself sufficient to cause a stampede among Congolese there, who thought that Belgian paratroops were on the way.

At Lisala, a Belgian captain to whom the local Congolese troops remained loyal told the correspondent: "All was calm until you came." He pleaded: "Impress upon the authorities that in no circumstances must they send troops here."

The French press lavishes high praise on Mr. Hammarakold for his "neutralization" of the Congo crisis, and this, they say makes amends for the Secretary. General's errors in the past. At the same time, some papers here are critical of what they term the "characteristic" American rush to take over economic interests in Africa abandoned by the Belgians.

ACRE. A Youth Aliya educational institution was dedicated at Kibbutz Lohamel Hagetaot yeaterday. Present, were representatives of Youth Aliya, Kibbutz Hameuhed and the Pollah Embassy, and over 100 Hadassah women from the U.S.

Forty eight children, immigrants from East Europe, have been living at the institution, for the past nine months, Designed by Mrs. N. Yudkovsky, a member of the kibbutz, the building has 12 dormitory rooms, a large hall and two libraries.

The Home is named after the iste Marcus Lindenbaum, of the U.S., who left $150,000 for the benefit of immigrant children to Israel. The institution cost IL160,000, half contributed through Youth Aliya and half by the kibbutz.

The plaque for the Home was unveiled by Mrs. A. P. Schoolman, Chalirman of Hadassah's National Youth Aliya Committee. (Itim)
